

The Hepatitis C & Drug User Health Center of Excellence

presents

Antiracism and Harm Reduction

Tuesday,
February 25th, 2025
12:00-1:00pm EST

Felecia Pullen, PhD
CEO, PILLARS
President, Let's Talk SAFETY

Learning Objectives:

- Discuss how systematic racism influences providing culturally competent care
- Describe how to integrate addiction medicine and infectious disease prevention, treatment and care within an antiracist framework
- Review harm reduction approaches and resources in New York State with an antiracist framework
- Discuss strategies to address racism in health care and expand harm reduction approaches throughout New York State

Register Today!

CME Accreditation/Certification:
The University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CNE Statement:
The University of Rochester Center for Nursing Professional Development is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
1 Nursing Contact Hours will be provided.